Sunrise Services Slated for Walteria

Fourth annual sunrise services sponsored by the Walteria Business Assn. will be held beginning at 5:30 a.m. Easter Sunday in the Walteria Park, it was announced yesterday by James E. Whitmer, chairman of the event.

Ministers from the three Walteria churches have joined in the effort to make this one of the finest services ever offered in the area, Whitmer said. The ministers are Rev. Andrew Duty, of the Walteria Baptist Church; Rev. Edwin Bowling, of the Walteria Methodist Church; and Rev. Fred Martin, of the Assembly of God.

The service will open with "Taps," played by Dale Wickstrom. A 40-voice combined choir of the churches will sing several numbers. They will be directed by Mrs. Robert Cramer and Mrs. James Hill.

R. V. Duty will read the script and give the benediction, and Rev. Bowling will deliver the Easter message.

A trio from the Assembly of God Church will also be heard, Whitmer said. Among the numbers to be sung by the choir are "All Hail," "Beautiful Saviour" and "Christ the Lord Has Risen Today."

Mooseheart Choir to Sing 'The Holy City'

The Loyal Order of Moose "Child City" combined Catholic and Protestant choirs of 150 voices will be heard in a special coast-to-coast program on Easter Sunday, repeat performance by popular request, according to word received from the Mutual Broadcasting System, George Powell, governor of the Torrance lodge, announced this week.

The combined choirs, consisting of boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 18, all fatherless children, will sing Albert Ross Gault's deeply religious cantata, "The Holy City," during this second annual Easter broadcast from Mooseheart, Ill., over the more than 500 affiliated radio stations of what is called the world's largest network.

"The Holy City" is only one of several cantatas and oratorios written by this talented composer, but it has become the most popular and a part of the standard repertoire of most church choirs. Emanating from the beautiful House of God at Mooseheart, imposing edifice which embraces all faiths and religions, the special broadcast will carry messages from Robert F. Hurelign, noted MBS newscaster; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. J. Lafey, Catholic priest at the "city," and the Rev. C. Donzel Payne, Protestant resident minister.

Broadcast time has been tentatively scheduled for 9:30 to 10 p. m., but those interested have been advised to check with radio station KHJ or late radio listing to eliminate any chance of missing the performance due to late changes.

Two Services Planned By Baptists

"The Message of the Resurrection" will be the theme of the Rev. C. M. Northrup when two full Easter services are conducted, one at 8:30, the other at 10:50, at the First Baptist Church. Sunday school will start at 9:30.

In the evening service, at 7:30, "The Necessity of the Resurrection" will be the sermon topic. Easter music will be directed by Douglas Jeffery.

A 40-voice choir will sing in the morning services and a large youth choir in the evening program.

Music to Take Large Part In Easter Service
The Torrance Foursquare Church will join with eight other Foursquare gospel churches in presenting the Easter Sunrise Service at Roosevelt Memorial Park at 5:15 Sunday. Included in the service will be the music from the giant outdoor organ, which is one of the world's largest.

Three Hour Good Friday Service Told

"Father, Forgive Them," will be the sermon delivered by the Rev. Clarence Miller tomorrow at the First Methodist Church when the church joins with others in the community to hold Three Hour Good Friday Services.

On Easter Sunday two identical services will be held, one at 9:30 and the other at 10:50. Baptismal services will be held at both services for infants and adults.

School classes for children through the third grade will be conducted with older children attending the regular Easter church worship services.

Alondra Slates Children's Party

Two Easter programs are on the slate to be held at the Alondra Park Community Building. A full-length feature motion picture film will be shown Saturday starting at 10:30 a. m. Immediately following the film an Easter Egg Hunt will take place in the area surrounding Alondra Lake.

Saturday's program will be for children from the ages of 7 to 12. Games, relay races and other contests will follow the egg-searching festivities.

A special Egg Hunt for children under 7 years of age will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30. The day has been set aside as a special family picnic day, park spokenmen said, and the park will be open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Those desiring to use the park cooking facilities are asked to bring their own wood.

Sponsoring the events are the Roosevelt Parent Teachers Association, the Alondra Park Recreation Council and the Anderson School Parent Teachers Association.

Lutheran Services For Week Announced

Following is the schedule of services during "the remainder of Holy Week" at the First Lutheran Church, Acaela and Sonoma Aves. This evening, at 7:30, a special communion service will be held. Tomorrow evening, Friday, at 7:30, Good Friday worship service. Easter Sunday, morning worship services will be held at 8, 9:30 and 10:45. Sunday school will be held at 9:30 and 10:45.

QUOTE 'N VEST
By Jack Treskes
The other day I happened to glance across a ladies' clothes sign that read: "Ladies Ready to Wear Clothes." Looking a little closer, I saw underneath, in bold masculine handwriting, someone had added: "It's About Time."

The truth is that anyone who wears clothes in a slipshod manner pays just as much for the things as the well-dressed man... The difference is merely selection.

Be it known that at this men's store we do not just show you clothes. We help you select those clothes that scientifically will most become your color, weight and build. That's why we say: "If you want to look better, BETTER LOOK IN TRESKES MEN'S WEAR. AT 1319 EL PRADO, TORRANCE" (between Newberry's and McCown Drug Store).

Commander of Salvation Army To Speak at Sunrise Services

The man who started his career as a carpet-slipped office boy in the London world headquarters of the Salvation Army and rose to the position of supreme commander of the Salvationists throughout the world will be guest of honor in Los Angeles next Sunday.

He is General Albert Orsborn of London, England, who will be the principal speaker at the Hollywood Bowl Easter sunrise service Sunday morning at 8 o'clock.

At dawn ten white-clad girl trumpeters will sound Meineke's "Gloria Patri" from a hilltop overlooking the famous amphitheater. The Mormon choir, composed of selected singers from 101 Latter-day Saints churches in Southern California will sing "Worthy is the Lamb" and the "Hallelujah Chorus" by Handel, and Bach's "A Mighty Fortress is Our God."

John Charles Thomas, celebrated concert, radio and motion picture star, will sing "The Lord's Prayer" and "Alleluia." General Orsborn will speak on "The Church Triumphant."

More than 75,000 call lilies are being readied for the services.
